

CHECK-IN PRIVACY NOTICE

CONCERNING THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA PROVIDED DURING THE PRELIMINARY RECORDING AND ONSITE CHECK-IN

Dear Visitor,

From 30th July 2019 the Act CXXXIII of 2005 on Security Services and the Activities of Private Investigators („Szvtv.”) obliges Sziget Cultural Management Ltd. (hereinafter: „Sziget” or „Controller”) to record the below mentioned personal data of the natural person (hereinafter: „Visitor”) who intends to enter a mass event – thereby also the Sziget Festival 2023 (hereinafter: „Festival”) - with an entry ticket*.

This recording may take place

- during the preliminary recording (at the venues published by Sziget in advance) until 9th August 2023, 9pm;
- and during the Festival at its venue (hereinafter: „onsite recording/ check-in”).

Therefore, during the preliminary recording and the onsite check-in the Visitor necessarily provides personal data, which Sziget will process in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council (hereinafter: “GDPR”) and the Szvtv.

Providing the personal data is obligatory. The process takes a little time, but without it the Visitor is not entitled to enter the Festival.

* Pursuant to Sziget Festival Visitor Policy children under the age of 11 are not required to have a ticket, therefore they are not affected by the data recording.

The Controller does not scan the document that contains your facial likeness and is appropriate for identifying you (with the content of the personal data required under Szvtv. 72/C.§ (2)), - especially, but not limited to personal ID, driving license, passport - only records the data required by law from it. The Controller exclusively records your facial likeness by a copy of that part of the document that contains this data!

Rights, legal remedies, complaints

In relation to the data processing, the Visitor has the following rights considering that the data are processed in accordance with legal requirements (otherwise Article 12-19 of GDPR shall apply) by the Data Controller:

Right of information: pursuant to the GDPR, during the data processing, the Visitor may request access to the personal data and may request information about data processing in writing on the above availabilities of the DPO (which will be provided by the Controller within no more than 1 month), regarding the purposes, legal basis, duration of the data processing, the identity and the contact details of the Controller and the Controller's representative, included here the right to file a complaint with a supervisory authority, in case the Visitor is not already aware of these information. The Data Controller provides this information by making this notice available to You.

Right to rectification: the Visitor may request rectification of personal data, thus has the right to require the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning the Visitor without undue delay from the Controller. The Visitor is entitled to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.

The right to the restriction of processing: the Visitor has the right to require the restriction of processing from the Controller when one of the following applies:

- the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the Visitor, for a period enabling the Controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- the processing is unlawful and the Visitor opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead
- the Controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the Visitor for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- the Visitor has objected the processing, in which case the restriction applies for the duration pending until the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the Controller override those of the Visitor.

The right to erasure may not be exercised (on request), since the data processing is prescribed by law, but the Controller deletes the personal data after the compulsory duration of the processing.

The Controller does not engage in automated decision-making or profiling as part of data processing.

In the event of a complaint, the Visitor may seek the following remedies:

If the Visitor feels that the Controller has violated any of the legal provisions applicable to data processing, please contact us first, using any of the above contact information, or at the following email address: dpo@sziget.hu.
